Short passage from the Gospel

Intercessions

We pray for our city and its people: that we may have sound government, kindly and just leadership, effective support in health-care, education, housing and all the other services we need. Lord hear us

We pray for the Archdiocese, for Glasgow Churches Together, and for all the churches in our city: that they will continue to work ever more effectively for the unity for which Christ prayed. Lord, hear us:

We pray for the needs of our country, for the Queen, and for the governments in Edinburgh and Westminster, and for all who hold public office. Lord, hear us:

We pray for the work of the United Nations and for the other international bodies established to help countries work together better. Lord, hear us:

We pray for those of our families, our friends, and the choir who are sick, for those who help and care for them; and we pray for our dead, that they may be at peace of the Kingdom of God. Lord, hear us:
