Let us pray:

Glorious God,
 You raised your Son to new life
 And established him at your right hand forever:
 The whole world sings with joy.

The risen Jesus revealed his startling presence
 By the simple human actions of Seeing and naming, touching and feasting.

May we cherish and foster this risen life
 within ourselves and among us, and one day stand in the company of the angels and saints victorious forever and ever. Amen.

Psalm 66

God, be gracious and bless us, let your face shed its light on us.
 So may your ways be known on the earth, all nations find your help. May he bless us and keep us, may he give us his peace.

Let the nations exult with joy for you rule us with justice.
 Let all the peoples praise you, O God, let all the peoples praise.
May he bless us and keep us, may he give us his peace.

Glory be to the Father, glory to his only Son,
 Glory to the Holy Spirit now and for ever. Amen. May he bless

Sanctus Memorial Doxology Agnus Dei

Communion antiphon:

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed. Let us celebrate.

After communion: a verse of the Benedictus

Blest be the Lord the God of Israel,
 who came to us; and brought us back from sin.
 God raised for us a Saviour who is mighty;
 his Saviour-Son from David's house and line.
 God promised this through holy men and women who spoke for him down through the mists of time.
