

Morning Prayer Tuesday 13 Jan 2015
The Feast of St Mungo

Let Glasgow flourish by the preaching of the Word.
Let Glasgow flourish by the praising of his name.

I rejoiced when I heard them say: "Let us go to the house of God".
Now our feet are standing within your gates, within your gates, now our feet are standing within your gates Jerusalem.

Let Glasgow flourish by the preaching of the Word.
Let Glasgow flourish by the praising of his name.

Let us pray
Lord our God,
You chose St Mungo as bishop
To spread the light of faith
by the preaching of your Word:
Grant that we who celebrate his memory
May always be true to his teaching
And so grow daily in faith and goodness.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you
and the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Psalm 18

Their voice has gone out, they fill the earth; the word of the Lord is heard.

The glory of the Lord is proclaimed; the heavens show the work of his hands.
Day unto day takes up the message, and night makes it known to night.

Their voice has gone out, they fill the earth;
the word of the Lord is heard.

No speech, no word, no voice is heard, yet their voice goes out throughout the earth, their words to the limits of the world, and their voice fills the earth.

Their voice has gone out, they fill the earth;
the word of the Lord is heard.

Short reading

Hebrews 13:7-9

Remember your leaders, who preached the word of God to you, and as you reflect on the outcome of their lives, imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same today as he was yesterday and as he will be for ever. Do not let yourselves be led astray by all sorts of strange doctrines.

Canticle Benedictus 1

Blest be the Lord the God of Israel, who came to us; and brought us back from sin.
God raised for us a Saviour who is mighty;
his Saviour-Son from David's house and line.
God promised this through holy men and women who spoke for him down through the mists of time.

Intercessions

Christ the Lord is our day and our sunlight, shining on the whole human race.

Let us praise him, saying:

– Lord, you are our life and our salvation!

Creator of the stars, we offer you in gratitude the first-fruits of this day, and we remember your resurrection.

– Lord, you are our life and our salvation!

May your Spirit guide us today to do what is pleasing to you:

may your Wisdom lead us always.

– Lord, you are our life and our salvation!

We give you thanks

for your immeasurable kindness.

– Lord, you are our life and our salvation!

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

You alone are holy,
And you alone are Lord,
and you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ our Lord.

Let us pray

Loving God,
as we honour St Mungo,
we pray for the city he founded and all its people.
Make us glad to inherit the Gospel he preached,
and to be ourselves the living stones
building up your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

May the Lord bless us and keep us from all harm;
and may he lead us to eternal life.

AMEN

Let Glasgow flourish by the preaching of the Word.
Let Glasgow flourish by the praising of his name.
For the peace of Jerusalem pray 'Peace be to your homes'
'Peace within your city walls. For love of brethren and of friends, pray 'peace be to your homes, may peace reign in your walls.'
Let Glasgow flourish by the preaching of the Word.
Let Glasgow flourish by the praising of his name.
