A prayer for peace

Father of us all,
We pray for your children afflicted by violence and war in the Holy Land, Syria, Iraq and in the many troubled countries of the world.
Care for the refugees,
Change the hearts of people of violence
And let us all learn to care for each other.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

We sit for the psalm

Psalm 8

Response

What are we that you should keep us in mind, mere mortals that you care for us?

When I see the heavens which your hands have made,
moon and stars and everything which you arranged,
what are we that you should keep him in mind, mortals that you should ever care for us? What are we that you should keep us in mind, mere mortals that you care for us.

You have made us little less than any god, you have blest and honoured us above all things, you have given us a share in your power, you have put creation underneath our feet. What are we....

You have put creation underneath our feet, ev'ry creature, sheep and cattle, savage beasts, birds of the air and fish of the sea, you have put creation underneath our feet.

What are we...

Glory to the Father, glory to the Son, glory to the Holy Spirit now and for ever.
Amen. What are we...

Prayer

Lord, be the beginning and end of all that we do and say.
Prompt our actions with your grace,
and complete them with your all-powerful help.
We make our prayer through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Mass continues with the Gloria or the Collect.

After Communion we sing a verse of the Benedictus:

Blest be the Lord the God of Israel,
who came to us; and brought us back from sin.
God raised for us a Saviour who is mighty;
his Saviour-Son from David's house and line.
God promised this through holy men and women who spoke for him down through the mists of time.

After Mass there can be a short sung blessing

May the Lord bless us and keep us from all harm, and may he lead us to e - ter - nal life.
