

St Leo's Morning Prayers

2021

Morning Prayer 1 for a martyr

From the rising of the sun to its setting great is the name of the Lord:
high above the heavens is his glory.
Glory to the Father, glory to the Son,
glory to the Holy Spirit now and for ever. Amen.

Prayer for Peace

Lord, we pray for peace in the Holy Land, for Afghanistan and all the troubled countries where people's lives are spoiled or taken from them by violence or war.
We pray for refugees,
and for generous hearts for those who need to show mercy.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Psalm 62

O God, you are my God, for you I long.

O God, you are my God, for you I long, for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you, my God, like a dry weary land without water.

O God, you are my God, for you I long.

I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and glory, for your love is better than life itself; my lips will speak your praise.

O God, you are my God, for you I long.

On you I muse throughout the night, on my bed I remember you, for you have been my refuge and your right hand holds me fast.

O God, you are my God, for you I long.

Glory to the Father, glory to the Son,
Glory to the Holy Spirit now and for ever. Amen.

O God, you are my God, for you I long.

Let us pray

God, our Father,
the love you have for us is seen in the beauty of this world,
And in the courage of the martyrs.
Give us a deep sense of gratitude for all you have given,
And let us be thrilled by our faith that Christ,
the First-born of the dead
Stands ready to welcome all who give their lives for their faith.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

We stand for the Collect or the Gloria Benedictus verse 1

Blest be the Lord the God of Israel, who came to us; and brought us back from sin.

God raised for us a Saviour who is mighty;
his Saviour-Son from David's house and line.

God promised this through holy men and women who spoke for him down through the mists of time.
