

Hymn: John Duns Scotus

(c) Stephen E Smyth
and Gerry Fitzpatrick

John Duns Sco - tus, son of Scot - land, Eng - land, France and Ger - ma - God's will and our hu - man free - dom are the keys to un - der - Eu - rope of the Mid - dle A - ges may now seem a dus - ty ny: known and loved a cross the na - tions, this is how we all should stand: it is love that is the es - sence, all cre - a - tion shows God's page, yet the quest for God and mean - ing is as fresh in our own

5

9 optional choir harmony as organ be. John, Fran - ci - scan, the - o - lo - gian, teach - er of phi - lo - so - hand. John saw clear the role of Ma - ry, 'Je - sus' Mo - ther, with - out age. John Duns Sco - tus, monk and scho - lar, thought be - yond old boun - da - phy: 'Su - btle Doc - tor, us - ing lo - gic as he sought to help us see.

13

sin: she was born so, out of God's will, through the grace of Christ, our King. ries. Faith and lo - gic, love and wis - dom: bless us with such gifts as these.